BENSENVILLE, ILL. creative werks, llc announced they were awarded the Safe Quality Food (SQF) 2000 Certification Level 3 from the Safe Quality Food Institute (SQFI). The SQF 2000 Code, accredited by the Global Food Safety Initiative as a criterion that meets its benchmark requirements, is a series of rigorous audits completed by licensed Certified Bodies from the SQF Institute. SQFI is the leader in providing the most globally recognized and trusted food safety and quality certification program.

“At creative werks, we rank food safety as our highest priority and are committed to providing our clients and consumers with quality products and services that meet and exceed expectations,” said creative werks’ President Steve Schroeder. “The SQF Level 3 certification signifies our dedication to food safety excellence and commitment to delivering the best products and services from our facility,” said Jürgen Peters, corporate vice-president.
